THE APOCRYPHAL OF JOHN THE THEOLOGIAN

(According to a Copy Included in Moscow Synod's Manuscript No 639)

(Summary)

The article deals with Слово о Второмъ, пршествни Господъне, attributed to John the Theologian (Apocalypse II) according to a copy from the 16th century (Synod. No 639) compared with other ten copies from the 13th century. The series of text distinguishing features and lexical variants, which characterize the examined copy's differences from all the rest, permit the conclusion that it is a different version. On the basis of a number of linguistic peculiarities its South Slavonic origin is presumed.
